TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR

HAMLIN, JONES COUNTY, TEXAS, MAY 24, 1935.

NUMBER 30.

Commencement Week and School Closes; Record Graduating Class

Last Sunday night was the first of a series of "commencement" programs for the closing of Hamlin's school year and her largest graduating class.

The High School auditorium was the scene Sunday night for the baccalaureate sermon. The auditorium was made lovely with the decorations of spring flowers and class colors of green and white. As usual the spacious auditorium was more than filled, with an appreciative audience.

The honor of delivering the baccalaureate sermon this year fell to Mr. S. L. White pastor of the First Church of Christ of Wichita Falls. The minister made an unusual sacrifice to accept the Hamlin invitation to address the large class here this year. His own daughter is a member of the graduating class in Wichita Falls, and her class baccalaureate sermon was being given at the very time it was in progress in Hamlin.

Rev. White delivered a most unusual and impressive sermon. His theme was that God valued "time" and gave time to mankind only by the "second" and that the way life is spent depends upon how the seconds of life are used. It was a thought that the young man or woman can not get away from, and while it was of course for the class primarily, not a person present but realized perhaps more than ever what a second means in one's life.

Fifty-two members of the class were ushered to their appointed seats by the young men and women of the Junior Class.

The special music for the occasion was furnished by the splendid voices of the Schubert Music Club, with Rev. Hugh A. Longino and Rev. J. H. Whitaker participating in the services by invocation and benediction.

SPEECH ARTS PROGRAM

On Monday evening at the High School, Miss Mary Belle Booth presented her class in a public program. It was exceedingly good and each and every number on the program gave proof that the student had been well instructed. The program was varied and this entertainment received much favorable comment.

MISS GILBERT CLOSERS HER MUSIC YEAR WITH PROGRAM

Miss Edwina Gilbert has maintained a large class this year in piano music. She closed her 1934-1935 work Tuesday evening with one of the best programs of her experience as a teacher. The auditorium of the First Methodist Church was used, and the crowded house bore testimony of the appreciation that is felt by music patrons and the music loving public.

Miss Gilbert holds a degree in music from S. M. U. at Dallas, and she is recognized as one of West Texas' most capable teachers.

PRESNETED THURS. EVENING

The final event in the closing of this year's school work in Hamlin was held at the High School Auditorium, Thursday evening.

"THE FRESHEST LOAF IN HAMLIN"

REVIVAL MEETING BEGINS SUNDAY

—METHODIST CHURCH—

Time has a way of slipping around so quietly that it is on a person before he is really conscious of it. Someone has said that opportunity is a saddled horse that comes to one's door for a moment and then passes on not to return. If used when there, he will serve to advantage but if not put to service during that brief period he is forever gone. The child said to the mother, "If one waits long enough Christmas will always come."

The time set for our revival concluding with the dedication of the church is now at hand. Will we avail ourselves of this opportunity and make it a happy occasion? Will our hungry hearts be fed with Heavenly Manna? Will the unsaved find God precious to their souls? The next ten days will tell the story of how we made use of our opportunity. Shall we not put it into it and then feel good over our efforts the rest of the summer.

Rev. Homer Vanderpool will be with us for the night services Sunday and Bishop Boaz will be here Sunday week. Invite your friends to worship with us and let's manifest that good spirit of Southern hospitality throughout the meeting.

The third sermon, in the series, on the parable of the Prodigal Son will be given Sunday 11:00 A. M.; "The Father's Forgiving Spirit." This worship hour will close with a "Flower Service." Bring all the flowers you can for they can be used throughout the meeting and we need them for this service especially. Just any kind for God has made all of them beautiful, and they are here to cheer our hearts.

The services will be held morning and evening throughout the week. Come regularly if possible but feel free to attend any service and take part for it is your meeting and the doors are open to any who care to come by and worship.

H. A. LONGNO, Pastor.

TWO COMPLAINTS

The Herald is always hearing somebody's complaints, even from those who do not read the paper. No, no, no, no complaints about what is in or not in the Herald, but complaints about mosquitoes, rats, weeds, dirt, not enough water or too much water, dust, or mud, kids, calves, chickens, cows, horses, sometimes chicken thieves, and gasoline snitchers, and so on down the dictionary of things in the community.

THIS WEEK'S COMPLAINTS:

First it's about COWS getting away from the herder and strolling into the yards of Hamlin. This complaint should be made to the Mayor or the City Marshal, but most folks prefer the paper to do their "cussing" for them. And we will agree that it's enough to make a man and even a woman "cuss" when they see an old cow romping across a yard, plowing the grass, or hooking to pieces some pet shrub, that has been cared for through all kinds of weather. It costs plenty of time and labor to start shrubbery and grass, and no wonder folks don't like to see a cow or any animal destroy it.

RECKLESS SHOOTING is the next line of complaint. A man came into the Herald Friday "hot." He said boys had been in northwest Hamlin area shooting with rifles and had come near hitting his child. Has he a right to complain? Shooting is a dangerous thing anywhere, especially when a couple of boys get out near where people live.

The two complaints need attention from the city.

R. M. Grubb, of Rotan, is announcing the opening of the poultry house just east of the F. & M. Bank this Saturday. Mr. Grubb has been in the produce business 14 years at Rotan and he promises to see that Hamlin territory farmers get the highest prices for all kinds of produce.

Fresh delicious EDDIE JAY BREAD is placed in the grocery stores of Hamlin EVERY MORNING. Insist on FRESH BREAD, baked in Hamlin.

FED. HOUSING ADMIN. YORK'S NEW STORE WILL OPEN FORMALLY

Wednesday Joe W. Bratcher, Field Representative for the Federal Housing Administration, was here interviewing bankers, lumbermen, contractors, the newspaper, and the Chamber of Commerce, giving detailed information on the subject of the F. H. A.

He seeks to organize Hamlin city and territory to take advantage of the government's plan of getting work, needed work started in the building line.

The government, under certain conditions, will guarantee 20 per cent of a loan for repair work on homes, or rebuilding, etc.

Mr. Bratcher left several pamphlets giving 14 questions and answers, on loans, such as WHO may, to WHOM apply, how MUCH, how LONG, what SECURITY, what ASSURANCE need I give, what SIGNATURES required on notes, what COST of this CREDIT, How Do I apply for it, KINDS of buildings, WHAT PAYMENTS NOTES may be paid to make PAYMENT, Conditions of any case of failure to pay.

ARLIE CASSLE CHAIRMAN

In starting off the organization of Federal Housing in Hamlin, Mr. Bratcher appointed Arlie Cassle as chairman.

The Field Agent will be back in Hamlin, perhaps next week, and he says he will do everything possible to stimulate re-building, repairing and modernizing homes, business houses, etc., in Hamlin.

This reminds the Herald to call attention to a paint advertising campaign that the Sherwin-Williams Co. through the Rockwell Bros. & Co. has been carrying on in Hamlin the past months. This week finishes the schedule, and the weather man has decided to co-operate with the paint firm to fix conditions so paint will not get covered up in dust. The rains and milder weather makes house painting and house improvements possible now.

MAPLES GETS A NEW

AMBULANCE-HEARSE

Friday afternoon, Oscar Maples, of the Maples Funeral Home arrived in Hamlin with a brand new Chrysler-Airstream Ambulance-Hearse.

This ambulance is the latest out. It is arranged so as to be a regular ambulance when needed and convertible into a regular hearse when needed. It appears complete in every detail providing for comfort and safety to the patient and the driver. The springs, lighting, ventilation, and all go to make a thing of comfort. Too, it is attractive in appearance, seeming more like a passenger car in the higher brackets of cost and appointments.

Mrs. Jack Rupert and daughter, Miss Naomi, and Miss Lusara Randel, visited in Breckenridge, Friday.

The Herald is authorized to state for Mr. M. T. York that their big New Hamlin Store will open their doors for the first time in a kind of House-Warming, on Thursday afternoon, May 30, at 3:00 P. M.

The reception will probably continue through the afternoon and again the doors will be open for visitors probably from 7:00 P. M. to 10:00. That day is visitors' day, and while the Herald editor has not even got a peep yet, we are venturing that Hamlin community will see one of the prettiest stores of this kind in west Texas—this is a safe guess.

This store is Mr. York's Eleventh. The first York Store was in Hamlin about 15 or 16 years ago. Next Thursday, May 30, is set aside primarily for visitors, a formal opening, and those desiring to see will have an opportunity both in the afternoon and night.

No sales will be made, according to Mr. York, till Saturday, June 1.

Further details of this new store for Hamlin will be in next week's Herald.

MISS EDDINS IN CHARGE

OF BEAUTY PARLOR

NEAR FERGUSON THEATRE

Readers of the Herald will observe an announcement of Misses Gladys and Eola Eddins, the new owners of the beauty parlor formerly known as the Monique Salon, next door to the Ferguson Theater.

These young ladies are naming their beauty parlor the "Gladiola" Beauty Shoppe, thus incorporating both of their given names in the signature.

Miss Ethel Harris, of Dallas, came up Saturday to spend her vacation at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Harris. Miss Harris is with the S. W. Bell Telephone Co. in Dallas. She will be here about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ezell left Monday for Galveston to attend the State Bankers Convention. They were accompanied as far as Houston by Mrs. John T. Day, who went there to visit her sister, Mrs. J. C. Ellis.

Policeman Ed Bigbee of Ft. Worth, and by gosh! Hamlin's old time City Marshal, came up Thursday to give Hamlin the "once over" again. Ed will be strolling around on our streets till Sunday and if some of you new folks see the biggest man in town looking natural-like a big policeman just say "hi Ed" and watch him smile. Mr. Bigbee has been on the police force in Ft. Worth for 12 years, and nearly every year he comes up to Hamlin to renew the Western spirit. Sure Ed takes the Herald—he has enough time to read and keep up with his old friends.

GOREE EXPECTED IN HOT GAME

Goree will play at Hamlin next Sunday, May 26th, to decide who shall hold second place in the Wichita Valley League — Munday and Haskell being tied for first place.

From all indications it should be one of the best games of the season as Goree lost a 4 to 3 decision last night 13 innings on May 12th against Munday. Last Sunday Hamlin lost to Haskell 3 to 2 in a ten inning contest.

Local fans will be interested to know that Marion Courtney, Ace left-hander, from last years club will again appear in a Hamlin uniform next Sunday. Courtney will be remembered as the lad who won a 1 to 0 decision over Gaut Hambright who pitched for the Munday club last year, holding them to one hit and winning the championship of the Wichita Valley League for the Hamlin Club.

Another item of interest will be the appearance of Jennings Goode in Hamlin's right field position. Goode played this position last year and ended the season with a batting average of .452.

Blacky Adams, who did the receiving for Hamlin last year, will also make his appearance in a Hamlin uniform. Aside from his skill in handling his pitchers, Blacky was one of the leading home run hitters in the league last year and lead the club in runs batted in.

ATTENTION COTTON FARMERS

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE

Anson, Texas

May 21, 1935

I would appreciate it very much if you would put the following in your paper:

"Now is the time for all last year Cotton Tax Exemption Certificates to be turned in to be replaced with new 1935-1936 Certificates for use on cotton grown this year. Old 1934-1935 Certificates will not be good for this year unless they are exchanged for new ones.

"The National Cotton Certificate Pool" has sold 65 per cent of all certificates turned in last year, and when the second payment comes in the 35 per cent not sold will come in certificate form. There will be a "Special Pool" opened when the certificates come in from the old pool, and it will be optional to the holder of the certificates to enter them or any other old certificates into the "Special Pool."

Very truly yours,
TOM LEE EASLEY,
Assistant in Cotton Adjustment.

DEPOSIT INSURANCE An Extra Measure of Protection

The management of this Bank always has taken every possible precaution to safeguard the funds of its depositors. In keeping with this traditionally conservative policy, deposits made here are now insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The insurance thus provided applies to all deposits, including personal and corporate deposits, deposits of public funds, and trust funds awaiting investment.

At the present time, the maximum amount insured for each depositor is $5,000. This does not mean that a depositor with an account of say $500, is guaranteed $5,000, but it does mean that his $500 is fully insured. Deposit insurance is for your protection. It is a permanent part of the Nation's law.

"HANGOVERS"

Last week there were two "HANGOVERS" that were due consideration. For that matter this same thing is true of every Weekly Paper in the country. Things come up, locally, State and nationally, that one would be glad to comment upon, but press hour comes on and no time is left for discussions. So we call such things our "HANGOVERS."

FARMERS TO WASHINGTON:

One of the chief and rare happenings last week was the trek of farmers to the Nation's capital. Farmers going to the Capitol? You have heard of moneyed lobbyist going in great numbers to the site of legislatures and to congress, but the very idea of FARMERS, "How shocking, who paid for it, what did they want, there was a bug under the chip, it just won't do, let's investigate, let's see" were a lot of the many exclamations heard through the press and from the halls of Congress, especially from the Republican side. How strange that sight—overalled red-faced, brawny men with backbones, and "tummies" to back 'em up, hiking out to hob-nob with cabinet members, congressmen and even the president. According to certain lopsided folks in Washington, it was all a frame-up. But who would have said a thing had that many bald-headed, conniving, scheming, highly paid bankers, attorneys, agents and other kinds of guys gone to Washington, nothing would have been said. Of course the FARMERS were lobbyist. Why not farmers do a bit of lobbying. That's what is the matter with them now. They have let the other fellow lobby them out of their rights and its about time they were over-running Washington, to show their approval and if need be disapproval. They paid their own way, they selected their own representatives, they did their own talking, and it was a pretty come-off the way some of the Republicans raised hell about them coming to Washington. Here's hoping that not only 10,000 but sometime a hundred thousand will make some of the said old Senators in Washington know they "Farmers are in Town." Go again boys, them's our sentiments.

NOW THE BONUS HANGOVER:

This is such a big hang-over that time and space will not allow us to do it justice. But folks you may take this and chew it. The Bonus Question is with us for settlement and the quicker it is settled to the satisfaction of the people, the better. Nothing that has been done so far has been accomplished except by the over-riding of a presidential veto. A Bonus Veto is no rare thing. Coolidge did it, Hoover did it, and Roosevelt has done it twice. Perhaps congress is wrong sometimes but hardly all the time.

This paper is for Mr. Roosevelt strong and unflinching, and was even years before he was nominated. We listened to his great appeal for congress not to over-ride his veto—his voice, his tone, his earnestness was wonderful, but much of his logic was not so convincing. The way we see it, the congress of the United States should be nearer right, in most cases than the one president.

The only question that may not be settled in many minds, is whether or not this country can well absorb $2,200,000,000 more in our circulating money. Good authority say yes. No one would say keep "printing money" regardless of amount, that is silly. There is a safety notch and does the Patman money go too far? Congress don't seem to think so. The other bunch who is against the New Money is that fellow who has money laid up ready to buy some U. S. Bonds, tax free or loan it out at a bigger rate of interest than he can if two billions more is in circulation. There are only two classes not in favor of the Patman Bill—the "Afraid" fellows and the moneyed fellows.

In all the "Hang-Over" let's remember that this country can get along. It may be that Coolidge was right, and that Hoover was right and that Roosevelt is right and congress and all the people are wrong. Time will tell. Every War-Boy can get along somehow without the country paying him anything, other wars may need winning and millions of young men would rush to the trenches, and daddies and mothers with them. Life is a struggle and what seems to be might not be, and what is apparently right may not be right. Let's all agree and disagree and keep on keeping on, hoping for a happy outcome, if not for ourselves then for the future generations.

Bronte, Texas, according to the Bronte Enterprise, published by Rev. West is to have a big day down there Sunday, May 26, in celebration of "Arkansas' Reunion". BUT FINED $12.50 ON WAY

TO THE HERALD:

Just a few lines to let our Hamlin friends know that we landed in California O. K. We were four days on the road, as we kinda got delayed in El Paso. We stayed part of the night and one whole day in El Paso, leaving there about ten o'clock Monday night and when we got over to Deming New Mexico, we got fined by the State officers $12.50.

Well, we went over some of the roughest mountains you ever saw around one curve and another and went through a few tunnels and last landed in Los Angeles, California, at midnight Tuesday and left there at eleven the next day and got to Calwa around nine o'clock P. M.

This is a fine country. Everything looks green. They are going to have one of the biggest fruit crops that they have had in their history and they have got ten thousand acres of spuds around Shafter, Calif., just one little town.

We fellows think we will have work until the first of the year. We like out here fine; think maybe we might make this state our home.

Cardui stimulates the appetite and improves digestion, helping women to get more strength from the food they eat. As nourishment is improved, strength is built up, certain functional pains go away and women praise Cardui for helping them back to good health. . . . Mrs. C. E. Ratliff, of Hinton, W. Va., writes: "After the birth of my last baby, I did not seem to get my strength back. I took Cardui again and was soon sound and well. I have given it to my daughters and recommend it to other ladies." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefitted them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

In this week's Herald there appears a new name of refrigeration. It's the NORGE and while its new here it is not new in other parts of the country.

Note that the firm name is HOPPER & McBRIDE. This means Otis Hopper and Herman McBride are the boys who have the Norge salesmanship in Hamlin. What they don't know about the Norge has been rubbed out. Ask them and see. As indicated in their advertisement their display is in rooms at the Hopper Barber Shop.

ONE DECADE OF SERVICE

Only one decade has passed since a unified plan of electrical development was inaugurated for West Texas. The West Texas Utilities Company pioneered in this development in 49 West Texas Counties and now serves 159 towns and communities. Many of these towns have for the first time dependable and adequate electric service and many without immediate hope of electric service were enabled to procure such service.

The results of this well-planned and unified system of electrical development has made possible economies in operation through a closely correlated and experienced management. Rates have been reduced over 60 per cent since the organization of this company.

This company realizes the importance of electric service in the home today. It reasonably anticipates a far greater service in the future. Every plan of company operation is guided not only by immediate needs but by the potentialities for tomorrow. The policies that this company has adhered to in the past of building and of reducing rates can be continued with the co-operative efforts of its valued customers.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule . . . and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

KEEP RISING FOOD COSTS DOWN

WITH NORGE
ROLLATOR REFRIGERATION

HERE'S THE WAY IT'S DONE:

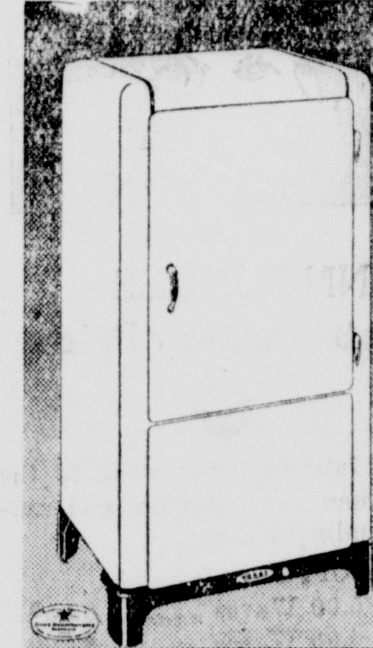

Do you realize how much "hand-to-mouth" buying costs you—how much you waste by buying foods in small quantities—buying ice to keep them fresh from day to day?

A Norge Rollator Refrigerator will stop that waste. With a Norge you can profit by Saturday market bargains—stock up for a week. Thus you not only get the benefit of sale prices, but you have the added advantage of "quantity" specials.

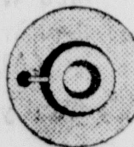

And even that isn't all. Leftovers, which you might now have to throw away, can be saved till you are ready to use them.

With a Norge Rollator Refrigerator you have plenty of space to store foods—plenty of cold to keep them fresh. Waste from spoilage becomes a thing of the past. And because of its unusually efficient mechanism, the Norge uses so little current that you scarcely notice it on your light bills. Rollator Refrigeration does save up to $11 a month. Many Norge owners report even greater savings.

Now that food prices are mounting Norge becomes an even greater economy than ever. Come in. Let us give you specific facts and figures.

THE ROLLATOR COMPRESSOR . . . smooth, easy, rolling power provides more cold—uses less current.

To prevent motor damage when you

...drive slowly

...pick up quickly

...drive over 50

...you must have oil of high film strength!

DID YOU know that idling along at 10 miles an hour or picking up suddenly can cause as much motor wear as high-speed driving?

All three put extreme pressure on your connecting rod and crankshaft bearings. If your oil does not have enough oiliness and film strength to withstand these high pressures, your motor parts suffer damaging wear. That's why you need oil with the greatest possible oiliness and film strength.

Straight mineral oils have no more oiliness and film strength than they had 10 years ago. Some, because of over-refining, have less!

Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil has more oiliness and 2 to 4 times more film strength than straight mineral oils! The Germ Process—adding concentrated oily essence to highly-refined, paraffin-base oil—puts into this oil more film strength and oiliness than any oil possesses naturally, no matter what crude oil it is made from!

That extra film strength and oiliness enable Germ Processed Oil to stay on the job and prevent wear under the most extreme pressure and heat. It helps Germ Processed Oil give long mileage with greater motor protection, as proved by the famous Indianapolis Destruction Test.

Germ Processed Oil protects your motor another way. Because it penetrates and combines with metal surfaces, it forms a "Hidden Quirt" that stays up in your motor and cuts down wear during the starting period.

Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil is the oil you need in this day of slow city driving, speed on the highway and sudden acceleration everywhere. It protects your motor and saves you money!

NATURAL FORCES AID BUSINESS RECOVERY

By R. S. HECHT
President American Bankers Association

ALTHOUGH, as official studies of business conditions show, business is still far from having struck its full stride, nevertheless,

R. S. HECHT

I believe that it is undoubtedly true that the natural economical processes which have always brought the nation out of a slump are now and have been for some time steadily at work laying the foundations for more active and normal business conditions.

The Fundamental Cure

Like a doctor, the administration can help nature. But the fundamental healing processes will come from natural causes and not from political remedies. Despite the slackening of business now apparent, despite expressions of disappointment we hear from various quarters, nevertheless I am confident that these fundamental healing processes, if not spectacular, are none the less surely at work.

Gradually our business leaders are showing greater confidence in the future and are assuming a more forward looking position. I firmly believe that if we will make up our minds to replace fear psychology with confidence-psychology the results will fully justify such a new attitude.

Washington.—Mr. pilots use an expression that I want to appropriate in connection with a discussion of the country's economic situation and its relation to the administration policies and plans. The pilots refer to "low visibility" and "low ceiling" when they want to say that they cannot see far in the distance. It seems to me that the clarity, or lack of it, with respect to current economic conditions warrants the use of the term "low visibility"—if any credence whatsoever is to be placed in the statements and activities of business leaders.

Government agencies by the dozen have been issuing rapid fire reports in recent weeks showing how industrial production is improved, how the price level has shown signs pleasing to industry, if not to the consumers, and how the volume of bank clearings is progressing upward. Bank deposits were seven billion dollars higher at the end of 1934 than at the end of 1933. The Reconstruction Finance corporation is having difficulty in keeping its borrowers from paying back the loans and the Securities and Exchange commission recently was made very happy by application of a great packing company to list forty-five million dollars in new securities.

The treasury has been pursuing what is regarded as orthodox financial policies and a good many other agencies appear to be veering away from the leftists' course that so long dominated Roosevelt policies. All of these, it seems, ought to be reassuring to business, whether that business be the great corporations or the little tradesmen in the corner groceries. But there has been a fly in the ointment and that seems to be the reason why masses of capital and a goodly percentage of the country's population shares uncertainty about the future economic condition.

I have sought answers to this puzzle in many quarters and I have had many different explanations. It is made to appear, however, from the weight of opinion that I have gathered that the relief rolls are the cause of this lack of faith. It has been recorded previously that approximately twenty-two million persons, about one-sixth of our population, are living on relief. This staggering total, the highest ever known, obviously represents a basic weakness somewhere and the administration is seeking to locate that weakness. This total has been reached by a steady growth. It has not come suddenly. The circumstance, therefore, has led many individuals to the conviction that Mr. Roosevelt's reform measures are failures.

Perhaps it is a lack of understanding on the part of business that prompts it to keep its pen in its pocket and its check-book closed under these conditions. It may be that business leaders have failed to read the possibilities represented by increased production and the other signs of an improved economy. Nevertheless, business apparently has found it difficult to see far or clearly into the future. It seems to look upon the economic condition as having a "low ceiling" and "low visibility."

Washington correspondents were startled in the President's press conference the other day when he let it be known that he plans four additional messages to congress this session, not including his recent bitter denunciation of the holding companies when he asked that action be had on that bill.

It was not the number of messages that surprised the correspondents; it was the fact that the President said with some frankness that he did not know what subjects would be treated in them. To most of the observers it seemed wholly reasonable that the President should be unwilling to outline those messages, but it was incomprehensible that he should admit his inability to say what subjects would be handled.

After that information came out of the White House there was a noticeable sinking in the optimism of a great many men who count for something in the country's business structure. Most of them said frankly that they did not know which way to turn. Among their numbers were more who believed sincerely that the President was giving up some of his numerous New Deal experiments and was proceeding on ground which the conservative thought considers to be solid. The reaction to work of this kind always has been and always will be bad from the standpoint of the political party in power.

Added to the circumstances I have just mentioned, one should remember how congress normally is unpopular with the business community. In many years past I have heard the plaint of business representatives in Washington asking or urging for adjournment. Business men normally feel that the less work congress gets done and the sooner it leaves the halls of the Capitol, the better conditions will be. The same is true now, only more so.

It may as well be admitted that the current session of congress is here for a considerable number of weeks. This is true for several reasons. In the first instance, many of the members feel that they want to be legislators and not rubber stamps any longer. There is no longer the overwhelming fear among congressmen of the President's power. They have shown this several times lately, including the forty-nine day battle over the public works bill.

Feeling their independence again, members of the house and senate have begun to press for action on legislation carrying out their own ideas. Much of this runs counter to administration ideas on legislation. Further clashes are inevitable. When there are conflict of plans in congress you can expect to see a long-drawn-out session, and since this is not an election year, there is no need for the members to rush home to mend their political fences.

It is not strange, therefore, that business as a whole is worried about congress. The business leaders themselves insist that it is not strange that they are worried about the secrecy which surrounds the President's plans. The two circumstances, taken together, obviously serve as a brake on the wheels of industry because now as always in the past business will not risk the last vestige of its capital resources unless it can be assured of stability.

While the Democrats, the party in power, are floundering, the Republicans lie wholly dormant. Seldom in my experience in Washington has the opposition party been as useless as the Republicans now seem to be. They are making no effort at all to gather funds for use by Chairman Henry P. Fletcher of the Republican national committee in taking advantage of vulnerable spots in the Democratic armor. In fact, they have left Mr. Fletcher rather high and dry when he attempts to do anything one faction or another shoots harder at him than at its natural rivals, the Democrats.

I have heard expressions lately to the effect that Mr. Fletcher has a golden opportunity at hand. He is in the enviable position of being able every time he is criticized by his own partisans to point out that the help they are giving him is worse than nil and that criticism under such a circumstance does not become them. The thought is that Mr. Fletcher by taking the bull by the horns, becoming militant and mapping out a program with which his wide knowledge of politics equips him, could become actually the dominant Republican force in this country. Thus far Mr. Fletcher has sat back in his easy chair and has taken all the darts. Some observers are asking how long that can continue and the Republican party remain alive.

Early in the Roosevelt administration the Republican policy was to avoid criticism of the Democratic leadership at all times. They declared, and openly announced their views, that if they criticized Mr. Roosevelt and his New Deal they would be characterized as obstructionists. If the New Deal failed the Democrats surely would place the blame on the Republican opposition. But political writers here tell me that Mr. Roosevelt's political honeymoon has been over quite a while and that there is, in their opinion, no need for the Republicans longer to stick their heads in the sand after the manner of the ostrich, and see nothing.

As the administration gets its hands on fresh supplies of money, a strong demand has set up for more concrete highways. There seems to be almost a propaganda in favor of constructing concrete highways here, there and everywhere, including two or three or four transcontinental, high speed roadways.

The new public works bill carries a considerable sum for highway construction and it is quite natural that dealers in road materials and equipment want to get hold of it. My inquiries among road-building authorities lead me to believe, however, that the use of these funds ought to be examined closely and any program that is mapped out should be the result of careful study. Around the Department of Agriculture there is a chronic complaint that too many through highways and not enough farm-to-market roads have been constructed. If that be correct, the authorities tell me, then the concrete road-building program will have to be revamped or else there will be hundreds of miles of concrete roadway constructed at an expense so great that it can be called reckless waste.

Some years ago the bureau of public roads made a statistical study which indicated that a concrete roadway, as distinguished from other hard-surface highways, was unjustified unless the daily volume of automobile traffic approximated fifteen hundred cars. It is to be remembered that a concrete roadway costs several times as much as when other materials are used in hard-surface construction. So the public roads statistician figured out the life of a roadway built of less expensive materials would be of sufficient length to warrant use of the cheaper material where the volume of travel was low.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Thedford's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Thedford's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."
